

Hamadan University of Medical Sciences

The establishment of governance think tank with the membership of the representative of the University of Medical Sciences in the ten-person scientific council

Education, Health, Food and Drug Deputy (membership information of managers in specialized provincial or city working groups such as working groups on suicide, AIDS, animal bites, etc., membership information of academic staff members in national centers and provincial assemblies, etc.)